II Corinthians 6:1-13

We are God’s plan for reaching this community!

God does deep work in us – to work through us!

When others see our choices, our lives, our families, can they see the Lord in us?

1. We are all players in God’s Redemption Drama
2. We must display exclamation points – not question marks
3. The power of our lives is God in the details

For further thought:

Where would you think others may not be able to see the Lord’s grace in your life?
(moments of anger, choices, etc.)

Do you leave more question marks or exclamation points along the way? Is it clear the Lord is working in your life or would others be more questioning about your faith?

Who can you begin to pray for, asking the Lord to help you build a bridge from them to Him?
